Remarks

Welcome to this beautifully crafted Anchor custom-built home situated on slightly over half an acre in one of Sarasotas most sought-after golf course communities, Serenoa. This exceptional property offers comfort, privacy, and breathtaking golf course and lake views, creating the perfect Florida lifestyle. This well-designed three-bedroom, two-bath split-plan home features both family and living rooms with expansive sliding glass doors that fill the home with abundant natural light and open to the outdoor living area and pool. Plantation shutters and crown molding throughout enhance the home's charm, while the kitchen nook showcases a stunning aquarium window perfect for enjoying your morning coffee or unwinding in the evening with a beverage from the built-in bar while overlooking the 18th hole and tranquil lake views. The generously sized primary suite features a French door providing direct access to the pool area. The guest bedrooms are also spacious, with one offering a convenient built-in Murphy bed. The family room includes custom built-in cabinetry, providing additional storage and functionality. The two-car side-entry garage offers overhead storage and built-in cabinetry for added convenience. Recent updates include a new AC (2025), new pool heater
